Achieved Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and Developmental Drama Gallaudet University in the year 2002, Gained 1-1/2 years Coursework in M.A. Deaf Education; Multiple Disabilities and is presently a registered Ball State University student for M.A. for Mild Intervention/Deaf Education.

This workshop will provide a Biblical approach for Healthy Boundaries and Christ-centered relationships for D/HH community and Interpreters through demonstrated effective strategies and adaptive instructions to achieve a bicultural and bilingual accessible program. Cross-cultural and interpreter scenarios will be presented with feedback from the presenter. This workshop will allow each Christian to accomplish a full-rounded identity, independent capabilities, and fluent skills in both languages English and ASL.

ASL Classifiers Used to Represent Bible Stories .2 CEUs Friday
 Donald Tinsley

This workshop is designed to breakdown common classifiers used by ASL users, and to gain “insider knowledge” in order to analyze phrases and learn how to use them in various interpreting settings.

Tips for Interpreting Music .2 CEUS Friday
 Robin Reid
 This interactive workshop will allow participants to compare ASL storytelling to interpreting music. The participants will have an opportunity to apply the tips for interpreting music by producing an interpretation with equivalency of meaning.

This Professional Studies Program is offered for up to 1.0 CEUs if attending both days at the Some Content Knowledge Level.
